1. Chhattisgarh Chief Minister and Food Minister unveiled Ulkia Village Food Park (Sept. 30, 2023)

With the joint efforts of Chhattisgarh Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel and Food Minister Amarjeet Bhagat, the first food park was inaugurated on 27 September 2023 in village Ulkiya of Sitapur development block of Surguja (Ambikapur) district.

An Overview of the News

- To ensure the success of the food park, adequate arrangements have been made for essential facilities like electricity, water supply and transportation.
- The state government has allocated Rs 6 crore 27 lakh for the establishment of this new food park.
- District Collector Kundan Kumar confirmed that the ownership of 8.920 hectare area for the food park project has been transferred from District Trade and Industry Center Surguja to CSIDC (Chhattisgarh State Industrial Development Corporation).
- The proposed food park will offer around 60 plots of various sizes including 3000, 5000, 7500 and 10000 square feet exclusively for setting up micro and small scale industries. These industries are expected to contribute to government revenue through various taxes.
- The establishment of this new food park is expected to provide many benefits to the local community including job creation, economic growth and improved infrastructure.

Food Park:

- Food parks are special industrial areas built specifically for food processing businesses.
- These parks provide shared infrastructure and facilities to food processing units, including:
 - Cold Storage: A facility for preserving and storing food products at low temperatures.
 - Cold Chain: A system for maintaining cold storage and transporting perishable goods.
 - Waste treatment plant: A facility for the treatment and management of waste generated by food processing.
 - Storage: Storage space for raw materials and finished products.
 - Power Connection: Reliable power supply for processing operations.
 - Water Facilities: Adequate water supply for various processing requirements.
 - Sewerage: A system for managing waste water.
- Food parks are particularly beneficial to small and medium-sized food processing businesses as these facilities can be expensive to set up individually.

- By providing the necessary infrastructure, food parks help reduce wastage in the food processing industry.
- The types of processing units installed within a mega food park often depend on the availability of raw materials and the location of the park.

- Plastic waste management includes setting up of units with utilization of waste plastic in road construction and waste collection and segregation sheds in 23 States/UTs.
- Biodegradable waste management includes composting at the community level and the construction of biogas and CBG plants in various districts.

Gray Water Management:

- In rural areas, grey-water management is important, and initiatives like the 'Sujlam' campaign have achieved success in this regard.
- About 63% of the villages have implemented grey-water management, contributing to the ODF Plus status.

3. Uttarakhand launches India's first polythene waste bank for sustainable waste management (Sept. 27, 2023)

On September 25, 2023, Dehradun Cantt Board in Uttarakhand launched the first three polythene waste banks in the country.

An Overview of the News

- These polythene waste banks are strategically placed, two of which are in Garhi and one in Premnagar.
- The inauguration of Garhi Kuda Bank was presided over by State Urban Development Minister Premchand Aggarwal.
- The primary objective of these garbage banks is twofold: waste management and income generation.
- Various polythene waste items including bags, chips wrappers, packing bags, plastic cutters and bread wrappers will be collected.
- Contributors will be compensated at the rate of Rs 3 per kg for the polythene waste brought by them.
- The collected polythene waste will be processed to make decorative items like tiles, boards and utensils.

Expansion Plans and Environmental Impact:

- Additional polythene waste banks are planned to be operational soon, including at places like Bindal Chowki, Dairy Farm in Garhi, and Special Wing in Premnagar.
- This initiative has set a target to purchase a minimum of 70 tonnes and a maximum of 100 tonnes of polythene waste every month.
- This initiative addresses the issue of low-value plastics such as polythene bags and chip wrappers, for which there is often a lack of buyers and markets.
- Polyethylene waste banks aim to provide a solution for responsible disposal of such waste, which can potentially have a positive impact on waste management and the environment.
